

Media Bulletin ►

---

Today's Date: December 5, 2005

From: Nelson and District Museum, Archives, Art Gallery and Historical Society

Subject: Construction Resumes at 502 Vernon

---

On December 8th, the Nelson and District Museum, Archives, Art Gallery and Historical Society invites members of the media to join Board members, the Executive Director and the Project Manager at the museum's future home, 502 Vernon Street, for the official announcement of resumption of on-site construction.

MAAG representatives will provide the media with the following:

- Construction Announcement
- Update on Project Budget and Funding
- Major Naming Announcement / Launch of Archives Capital Campaign
- Question and Answer opportunity
- Photo-opportunities

Location: 502 Vernon Street (Vernon Street Entrance)

Date: Thursday, December 8, 2005

Time: 10 a.m.

If you have any questions please contact Leah Best, Executive Director at 352-9813 or director@nelsonmuseum.ca .

Please join us for this important update on Nelson's premiere cultural facility.

Built as a Post Office and Customs House, 502 Vernon Street is Nelson's former City Hall and future home of the Nelson and District Museum, Archives and Art Gallery. When renovated, the interior will be a community showpiece, offering a bright and spacious backdrop for the best of local and touring contemporary art, as well as a focal point for the region's distinctive history.